Loree Forest Spring Adventure

Date and Time: Saturday, April 29 9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: 296 Sunnidale Road Wasaga Beach

Kick-off event for Dontgetlost South Georgian Bay, a new orienteering group in the Wasaga Beach, Collingwood and Blue Mountains area. Dontgetlost Adventure Running is a non-profit organization that has provided outdoor activities for thousands of children and youth in southern Ontario since 2010, as well as families and adults of all ages, including seniors.

We're excited to welcome people of all ages - runners and hikers, novices and experienced navigators. Come out for a 1-hour map adventure exploring the forests and fields of The Len Gertler Memorial Loree Forest, perched above beautiful Georgian Bay. If you like maps and the outdoors but need some tips on navigating, there will be a free basic introductory clinic an hour before the event starts.

Two courses to choose from!

ADVENTURE SCRAMBLE

Participants will have up to 1 hour to find as many checkpoints as possible using the map provided. Checkpoints will have different point values so there is some planning and strategy involved. A pen and highlighter may be helpful. A compass is recommended but not required. A limited number of loaner compasses will be available - first come, first served.

Categories: Junior Women (Under 18), Junior Open (Under 18), Adult Women, Adult Open, Masters Women (50+), Masters Open (50+)

NOVICE COURSE

Participants will be given a map with numbered checkpoints to visit in sequence. All checkpoints will be along trails or in open areas. A compass will not be necessary although some participants may wish to practise using one.

Categories: Juniors (Under 18), Adults (18+)
